Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office ("AAO") on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is an Italian restaurant. It seeks to classify the beneficiary as an employment-based immigrant pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(1)(A), as an alien of extraordinary ability. The director determined the petitioner had not established the sustained national or international acclaim necessary to qualify for classification as an alien of extraordinary ability.

On appeal, the petitioner states:

I am appealing because I feel strongly that Mr. Richardson Khamset as the chef of Sal's Italian Restaurant has an extraordinary ability in the field of restaurant. He is very talented, devoted young man and has a lot of experiences. He has risen to the top of the profession. I would like his case to be reconsidered.

The single piece of evidence submitted on appeal is a letter from Paul Pizzi, who lists the beneficiary's duties, and states that the beneficiary is a valuable asset to the restaurant.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The reasons given for the appeal, and the letter submitted as additional evidence, do not specifically address the reasons stated by the director for denial.

In accordance with the above-mentioned regulation, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
